Christina Bruner
Director

The mission of the Strategy Management Office is to guide the development, alignment, implementation, and management of the strategy needed to meet the OIG's mission. The Strategy Management Office is responsible for:

- Tracking and measuring the OIG's progress toward achieving its key objectives;
- Communicating the strategy of the OIG to its employees and others outside of the organization; and
- Ensuring that the OIG is on the right path to achieve its goals and that the strategy is up-to-date.
